Technology Breakthrough

A programme aimed at embedding advanced digital solutions into designing, planning and operational control processes throughout mining operations
